2. Why Join Us?

At Wheels for All, we believe that cycling should be accessible to everyone. We help children and adults of all abilities experience the joy and freedom of cycling. As a sessional support worker, you'll play a key part in making that happen.

We offer:

- ☀️ Flexible work that fits your lifestyle
- 😊 A feel-good role where you'll make a genuine difference in people's lives
- 👕 Quality staff apparel to keep you comfortable and confident
- 💬 Employee Assistance Programme with 24/7 support
- 🧬 Full training and support – you don't need cycling qualifications to start
- 💰 Travel expenses reimbursement (we reimburse reasonable travel costs from your home to your primary place of work)

3. About Wheels for All

We are a national charity delivering inclusive cycling opportunities across the UK. With over 50 hubs and 30+ years of experience, our work supports people to cycle in a way that suits them – improving health, confidence, and connection.

“Wheels for All gave me a reason to get up in the morning again.” – Dave, participant & volunteer

4. Your Role

You'll support the safe and inclusive delivery of our cycling sessions at one of our hubs. Your day might involve:

- Setting up bikes and equipment
- Welcoming participants and creating a friendly atmosphere
- Supporting individuals with diverse needs
- Guiding and motivating riders
- Looking after basic bike safety and maintenance (training provided)
- Assisting with volunteers and logistics

You'll be part of a team creating a warm, welcoming and empowering space.

5. Who We're Looking For

Essential:

- A positive, reliable attitude
- Passion for making sport and activity accessible
- Great communication with people of all backgrounds
- Willingness to learn and be part of a team
- Flexible and adaptable

Desirable (but not required – we'll support your development):

- Full UK driving licence (manual)
- Ability to drive a van
- Physical confidence with basic lifting/setup tasks
- Ride Leader or First Aid qualifications
- Experience in a support, community or sports role
- Cytec qualified or experienced cycle mechanic
- Flexible and willing to travel to various regions to support the delivery of sessions and events as needed

5.1. Safeguarding

We work with children and vulnerable adults, so all offers are subject to references and an enhanced DBS check.
